ERASMUS Traineeship Opportunity in Horizon Europe Projects

The Department of Political Science at the University of Salzburg ranks among the hundred best in the world and is currently hosting two multinational research projects funded by the European Commission's Research and Innovation Program for protecting and nurturing democracies. The Professorship in Politics and Gender, Diversity and Equality is pleased to offer the following Erasmus traineeship opportunities (either as two part-time or one full-time position).

Profile

We are looking for interns who have:

- strong interest in learning qualitative and quantitative data collection, coding, and analysis and hands-on applied research
- background in political science, sociology or social sciences
- good command of written and spoken English
- experience with social media content creation (Instagram, Twitter)
- experience with writing literature reviews
- strong writing skills

Tasks

1) Horizon Europe Push*Back*Lash:

- Maintain project's social media channels (e.g., prepare posts, videos and updates as needed or requested).
- Prepare quarterly newsletter.
- Participate in data collection, coding, and analysis as needed or requested.
- Participate in the preparation of literature reviews as needed or requested.
- Participate in the preparation of reports and infographics as needed or requested.
- Assist with other research- or dissemination- related tasks as needed or requested.

2) Horizon Europe ActEU:

- Participate in data collection, coding, and analysis as needed or requested.
- Participate in the preparation of literature reviews as needed or requested.
- Participate in the mapping and aggregation of existing data sources as needed or requested.
- Assist with other tasks as needed or requested.

Each traineeship must be fundable within the Erasmus programme framework. The successful applicant will not receive additional payment from the University of Salzburg for this role. The traineeship contract must comply with both the Erasmus guidelines and the requirements of the sending (home) institution.

The trainee must have obtained the level of C1 (based on the CEFR framework) in both written and spoken English. German and additional languages are advantageous, as these enable a more personable exchange with international partners.

The traineeship is expected to start on October 15, 2023 – or on a mutually agreed date. It should last for at least one semester. There is an opportunity for an extension for another semester, for a total of 12 months. The internship can be either a full-time or a part-time position with 20 or 40 working hours per week - for the duration specified.

All Erasmus trainees need to register at the University of Salzburg to receive student status valid for the traineeship period. As a member of the Austrian Student Union, trainees are automatically entitled to liability and accident insurance during their time in Salzburg. In addition, enrolment allows trainees to attend courses of their choice along with other Erasmus students.

If the trainee is interested in starting the internship in October 2023, a valid enrolment is required for the summer semester 2023. As of 1 of October, the registration and funding within the framework of the Erasmus programme is also a precondition.

Please send your application, including a cover letter (max. 2 pages) CV and specification if you are applying for a full or part-time internship via email by September 1, 2023, to gde@plus.ac.at.

Online or in-person interviews will take place mid-September. For further enquiries, please contact the GDE – Team: gde@plus.ac.at.
