

German Language Courses at the Department of German Studies

WHAT is offered?

The Department of German Studies offers German language courses for levels A1 to C1, – a total of seven course levels is available (see course programme).

The basic level courses (A1 and A2) are 8 hours per week (worth 11 ECTS), all other courses are 6 hours per week (worth 9 ECTS). In addition, a 2-hour language skills course especially for oral communication and pronunciation (worth 3 ECTS) is offered at level B2.

There is a course fee of 25€ per contact hour per week per semester. An 8-hour-course amounts to 200€ per semester, a 6-hour-course to 150€ and a 2-hour-course to 50€. Students who pay 726€ student fees per semester are exempted from the course fee.

In the German courses all language skills (reading, listening, speaking, writing) as well as grammar and vocabulary are trained. There are regular homework assignments and language quizzes/small tests as well as a mid-term and final test. Detailed information and requirements will be given directly in the courses.

WHO can register for the German courses?

The German language courses at the Department of German Studies can be attended by:

- students in mobility programs (incoming students, e.g. with Erasmus, Joint Studies, BGSU...)
- regular students at the University of Salzburg
- non-regular students who do not require a student visa for Austria*.

* Please get information at the VPLUS = University course for the preparation of supplementary exams if you are a non-regular student and require a student visa or if you have applied for admission to a study program and need to prove a B2 level in German: Vorstudienlehrgang \(VPLUS\)

HOW can I register for the German courses?
