September 25th – 27th

Lecture Hall 301 – Wallistrakt
Franziskanergasse 1/4th floor

Religions, churches and theologies have faced – at least in the last 100 years and are still facing – the challenges of bi- and increasingly multipolar world orders. The actions, reactions and concepts with which these increasingly existential problems were addressed after the Second World War and the following Cold War will be subject of this international conference in Salzburg.
