Target Group

The preparatory course (VPLUS) at the Paris Lodron University of Salzburg prepares international applicants for the supplementary exams in German. Proof of language proficiency at level B1 is required for an application for admission.

What will you learn?

You will acquire language skills at level B2+ according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. You will be able to find your way independently in academic and everyday life in Austria and have sufficient knowledge of German to take part in university courses. In addition to the necessary language and subject knowledge, you will acquire study-specific skills, autonomous learning and intercultural competencies in order to be able to act independently in everyday university and non-university life.

Brief information

Duration: 3 modules in 3 semesters

- I. Independent Language Use:
Target level B1, 18 ECTS
- II. Independent in Language and Culture:
Target level B1+/B2, 21 ECTS
- III. Competent in Studies and Daily Life:
Target level B2+, 21 ECTS

Course fees: EUR 850,00 per semester*; costs for course books are not included

*The fee must be transferred immediately after registration.

You can find further information on admission, deadlines, cancellation and the ÖH fee here.
(ÖH = Österreichische Hochschülerschaft, Austrian Students' Union)

Requirements for participation

All persons who fulfill the following requirements may participate, provided there are enough free course places available:

- Letter of admission
- Registration as a VPLUS student within the registration period
- Payment of the course fee by the specified deadline
- Confirmation of admission from the VPLUS
- Enrolment at the university and payment of the Austrian Students' Union (ÖH) fee
- Placement test at the VPLUS

Registration procedure
